The CUHK Careers Guide 2011

Career planning is an ongoing process that should start early. With an aim to facilitating you in planning and achieving your career aspirations, the Career Planning and Development Centre has partnered with the GTI Media to issue the CUHK Careers Guide 2011. This Careers Guide provides you not only with useful information to move towards your career goals, but also with practical advice on job hunting and career preparation skills. The Guide is available to students of the graduating class of undergraduate programmes at the Student Services Centre, Office of Student Affairs, 1/F, Benjamin Franklin Centre (while stock lasts) as well as at the CPDC website at <http://cpdc.osa.cuhk.edu.hk>.

To allow us to further improve our guide, you are invited to give feedbacks on this publication. Please complete and place the feedback form (enclosed in the Guide) into the drop-off box at the Student Services Centre or you may submit your feedback online at www.hongkongs100.com.

We wish you every success in planning for your future!

Video on 'Pursuing Your Ideal U Life'

In order to promote a caring and supportive culture on Campus, the Student Counselling and Development Service of the Office of Student Affairs commissioned the production of a video entitled 'Building a Caring Campus' in 2009-10 which can be viewed on the section's webpage www.cuhk.edu.hk/osa/scds.

The video, directed by our alumnus Mr. Oliver Shing (Journalism 2009, Shaw College), highlights the warm and caring atmosphere on our campus through interviewing different members of our community with distinguished alumnus Mr. Lee Ming Kwai Dick (History 1972, New Asia College) and our University Dean of Students Prof. Ng Kee Pui Dennis as our special guests.

This year, we intend to 'Keep Caring' and as part of the Campaign, the Student Counselling and Development Service of the Office of Student Affairs recently commissioned the production of a video entitled 'Pursuing Your Ideal U Life'. The video expresses our special care and attention to new students by facilitating their university adjustment as well as promoting their mental health awareness.

Directed by our students, Chelsea Yu and Mandy Cheung (Journalism Year 4), the video captured different experiences encountered by Yat Lee, Ginny, Frederick, Ming and Gigi who come from diverse cultural backgrounds. In the video, each recalled his/her initial adjustment difficulties after arriving in CUHK, including language barrier, cultural diversity, study stress, etc, as well as shared with new comers their key to overcoming such obstacles. The video could be viewed on the section's webpage in October.
